

South Central Area Fair

STOCK DERBY RULES

(This will be the SECOND derby for Saturday Night)

$1200 for FIRST PLACE

$500 for SECOND PLACE

- 1 Sedan or wagon are not allowed to run. NO HEARST, IMPERIAL OR IMPERIAL SUB FRAMES WILL BE ALLOWED IN STOCK CLASS!!
- 2 No weld on the body is allowed other than what is stated, PRE- bending is allowed, doors may be welded shut. If welded, a maximum of 12 inches total on jam, can be divided up. Example= 2 of 2x6, 3 of 2x4. Must not be more than 12 inches combined. Steel strapping used must not exceed 1/8 inch thick.
- 3 Hood and trunks must be open during inspection, the hood and trunk must be secured with a total of eight 1/2 inch diameter bolt (4 hood / 4 trunk), washers no bigger than 4x4 and not to exceed 1/4 thick. All thread can be used to secure hood and trunk closed (may go through frame bushing holes) but must substitute 2 of the 4 that hold the hood or trunk closed.
- 4 10 inch hole must be cut in hood for fire protection. All head lights, tail lights, chrome, and glass must be removed from car. Interior/fabric/carpet of car must be removed. Broken glass and trash must be removed from floor and trunk.
- 5 Cages are suggested for driver's safety, a four point cage will be allowed inside the car, cage material must not exceed 4 inch diameter. Cage must be welded or bolted to car body. May not be welded to frame of car. Must not extend 8 inches past inner door seams and 5 inches off/above floor or rockers. must be at least 5 inches way from firewall. Single Roll bar will be allowed (must be no more than 8 inch back from door seam) 2 inch max diameter material.
- 6 Bumpers must be in stock location and will be measured for height at strong part of bumper. No more than 24 tall and no lower than 16. Strong part is where the bumper attaches to car frame. Bumper shocks may be collapsed and welded. Bumper shock flange is the flat surface that attaches the bumper to the bumper shock. The flange may be welded to the end of the frame and single pass only (the very end of the frame not the side of the frame). No welding the bumper directly to the very end of the frame, bumper must be attached with fasteners/bolts (not welded). Bumper bolts must not exceed 1/2 diameter 4 per side to attach bumper to flange. bumper hitches must be removed.
- 7 No chains allowed to around bumper to retain bumper to hood. No valve stem protectors.
- 8 Pitching is allowed but only by cutting/ slicing the factory tabs and then rewelding with single pass of weld only. Excessive welding will get you disqualified. No removal of OEM suspension or body bushing will be permitted.
- 9 Drivers must wear ansi/dot approved helmet with full face protection or approved eye protection
- 10 Gas tanks must be removed and relocated to rear seat location. The tank must be an outboard or equivalent style tank. Must be secured and covered.
- 11 Radiator may have 2 nylon ratchet straps to help secure it to car. Must be in stock location. No spray foam around radiator
- 12 Battery must be relocated to passenger side compartment and be secured to prevent spillage or tipping over. Must be covered.

13 Driver must have a working seat belt and must wear it whenever on the track for safety. Car must have working brakes (Minimum of 2 wheels)

14 No welding (other than what is stated) will be allowed. No fluids of any kind (transmission, coolant, oil, ect) will be allowed with driver. If frame has been beefed up, or added to, or strengthened in any manner. Vehicle will be disqualified from running.

15 One chain of 1/2 diameter x 12 inches can be used to secure engine to frame, one per side. Cradles are allowed but NO cradles with chains. No distributor protector, trans braces, rear axle braces, or pulley protectors allowed

16 Cars found in violation of these rules may be corrected and presented for re-inspection (must be before 1st heat).. First inspection is free....if vehicle has to be re-inspected 3 or more times, it will be an addition cost of 25$ each inspection

17 Winning cars are subject to final inspection and must pass to get money!!!